MEDIA INFORMATION

This guide is designed to assist the media in their coverage of New Jersey Institute of Technology women's soccer. The NJIT sports information services department will provide an official NCAA box score 10 minutes after the conclusion of each home game.

All interview requests should be made through the sports information office, 973-596-8324. Following games, coach Romano and selected players will be available on the field following a 10-minute cooling-off period. All visiting radio broadcast requests should be made at least two weeks in advance.

CREDITS

The 2001 NJIT Men's Soccer Guide is a production of the NJIT sports information services department, Mark Mentone, coordinator. Writing and design by Mark Mentone on Adobe PageMaker 6.5. Editorial assistance by Joe Caiola '80, Tom Romano, and Joe Harkins. Graphic design assistance provided by Johanna Moroch. Additional research by Jon Coleman '03 and André Narvaéz '03. Except where indicated, photography by PM Studios, Edison, N.J. Printing by Prestige Graphics, Union, N.J.

The New Jersey Institute of Technology women's soccer team begins its sixth season with yet another young group. There are 10 freshmen and no seniors on the 18-player roster, and as many as eight first-year collegians could appear in the opening-day lineup. But third-year head coach Tom Romano says this should prove to be the best team he has had.

"Player for player, we're a much better team than last year," said Romano, whose Highlanders were 3-13 in 2000. "But our biggest weakness might prove to be depth. If we can retain the girls in the program and have a couple of more good recruiting years, the future looks even brighter."

NJIT set school records for victories (3) and goals (14) in a season last year, and also recorded the first shutout and first conference victory in program history. Romano knows, however, that the Highlanders must continue to improve to become competitive against better teams in the region and in the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference.

"We need to win more games than last season," he said. "Ideally, I'd like to reach .500. The quality of recruits we've attracted and the number of people showing up for practice each day indicates that the program is moving in a positive direction."

GOALKEEPERS: Sophomore Daisy Calderon (3-10, 3.81 GAA, 1 ShO) led the nation in saves per game by a Division-II keeper. Calderon, however, played midfield in high school, and Romano may have her split games in goal with sophomore Jennifer Dorn or freshman Joy Intasamakul.

"Daisy can really distribute the ball well from the central midfield position," Romano said. "She has great skills and vision that we haven't been able to utilize."

FORWARDS:

The Highlanders took a big hit here when sophomore Vallerie DeAngelis (16 GP, 8g 3a), the program's all-time leading scorer, was declared ineligible. Freshman Cathy Wasko, however, has been impressive in the pre-season and could challenge DeAngelis' records. Sophomore Linda Flores (14 GP, 1g) and 16-year-old homeschooled freshman Karisa Solt are the other likely starters up front.

Joao Romano
Captain Anna Tomczak's (18) leadership will be needed with a young squad.

MIDFIELDERS: This is NJIT's youngest unit. Three freshmen are slated to start, Karina Merchan, Jessi Wilkinson, and Erin Salgado, and the backup spots are wide open. Calderon could take the pressure off Salgado at central midfield.

DEFENDERS: Captain and third-year starter Anna Tomczak (16 GP, 2g 4a) anchors the defense at sweeper. The other frontrunners are all rookies – Sarah Buchala at stopper and Heather Gough and Katie Leibel as outside backs.

Newark: The Renaissance City

NJIT is located in the heart of New Jersey's largest city. A major urban center, Newark is a city on the move. Some 30,000 undergraduate, graduate and professional students attend classes in University Heights at the city's four public institutions of higher learning: NJIT, Rutgers-Newark, the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, and Essex County College.

Attractions in Newark's revitalized downtown include:

- The Newark Museum
- New Jersey Performing Arts Center
- The Newark Public Library
- Symphony Hall
- Branch Brook Park
- Art galleries, restaurants, and shopping
- An urban architectural laboratory
- Professional minor league baseball (Newark Bears)

The New Jersey Performing Arts Center in downtown Newark

Newark. NJIT and Rutgers students have library privileges at both campuses. NJIT students may also enrich their educational experience by enrolling in Rutgers-Newark courses and in full degree programs in disciplines not offered at NJIT, such as art, music, geology and psychology.

Each year the two universities co-sponsor a common season of theatrical productions, as well as "World Week," a joint program of honors colloquia, and a variety of other cultural and social activities.

New Jersey/New York Metropolitan Region

The NJIT campus is in one of the nation's most exciting cultural and business regions. Advantages include:

- Minutes from New Jersey Performing Arts Center, Liberty Science Center, Meadowlands Sports Complex, Manhattan and all of its attractions, Newport Center Mall, and Secaucus Outlet Center.

About NJIT

NJIT's history spans from the Industrial Revolution to the Information Age. Newark was a factory town when the tuition-free evening school was founded in 1881 to support local industries. From the early days, science and technology have been the engines fueling the university's development.

Over time, the university both anticipated and responded to change by expanding its curriculum and mission. Most notably, in 1919, the university established baccalaureate programs in three engineering fields. By 1975, NJIT offered a broad range of undergraduate and graduate degrees. All programs included significant research and public service components with the goal of providing an academic environment that fostered intellectual depth and breadth, as well as social responsibility.

Today, continuing a fourfold mission of instruction, research, economic development and public service, NJIT is among the leading comprehensive technological universities in the nation. The university has state-of-the-art facilities with more than 2,000,000 square-feet of space located on a 45-acre campus in Newark, a Technology and Engineering Center at our 125-acre campus in Mount Laurel, N.J., shared with Burlington County College, and a solar observatory in Big Bear, Calif.

NJIT's Six Colleges

While there has been tremendous growth and diversification at NJIT, its roots are in engineering education. For more than eight decades, Newark College of Engineering (NCE) has been preparing engineering students to use science, mathematics, technology and problem-solving skills to design, construct, test and maintain products, services, and information systems.

The New Jersey School of Architecture, established in 1974, is one of the largest architecture schools in the nation and is nationally recognized for the innovative integration of computer technology into the design curriculum.

The College of Science and Liberal Arts (CSLA), established in 1982, is moving into the forefront of many national research activities from solar astronomy to computational and mathematical modeling. CSLA provides students with the skill sets for the professional marketplace including literacy in the computer, mathematical, physical and biological sciences, as well as the traditional liberal arts disciplines.

The School of Management, established in 1988, combines the best of the traditional business disciplines (e.g., finance, marketing, accounting, e-commerce) with the power of information and technology management to develop professionals who can manage and communicate effectively.

The Albert Dorman Honors College, established in 1993, offers one of the nation's leading technologically oriented honors programs for students who are prepared to undertake a rigorous and individualized course of study.

The College of Computing Sciences, established in 2001, encompasses a department of computer science, focused on both the theoretical areas of computing and the development of new computer technology, as well as a department of information systems, concentrated on applications involving people and organizations.

NJIT: A "MOST-WIRED" UNIVERSITY

NJIT has perennially been named a "Most Wired" university by Yahoo! Internet Life magazine in its annual rankings. As such, the university is nationally recognized as a pioneer in the use of computing and information technologies.

As a public research university, NJIT is educating leaders for a technology-driven economy. The university is rethinking educational programs to emphasize marketplace skills, and redesigning its methods of delivering education. Indeed, computing and information technology underpin every facet of the NJIT mission.

NJIT received Carnegie Foundation designation as a Doctoral II university in 1994 and has been ranked among the top universities by U.S. News and World Report every year since. NJIT expends more than $51 million in a panoply of research and development partnerships with industry, government, and other universities. NJIT researchers are making important advances in a wide range of areas, including the biosciences, manufacturing, microelectronics, multimedia, transportation, computer science, solar astrophysics, environmental engineering and science, and architecture and building science.

For more than a century, NJIT has been an important conduit through which technology flows into society. NJIT plays an essential role in the economic and social life of the state and nation. At NJIT, the objective is to provide graduates with analytic skills, as well as an ability to integrate the work of multiple disciplines to manage and lead knowledge-based and technology-dependent businesses.

The mission of a technological university requires that NJIT continue to recognize emerging trends in the economy, the sciences, and technology, and to anticipate their impact on society by developing appropriate educational and research programs.

Facilities

NJIT soccer teams play their home games at Lubetkin Field, a lighted, natural-grass campus facility adjacent to the Estelle and Zoom Fleisher Athletic Center.

Lubetkin, which is also home to the Highlanders' baseball team, contains a scoreboard and pressbox facilities, and has seating to hold approximately 1,000 spectators. The field is also used for physical education and intramurals.

The Fleisher fitness center features computer-controlled biking equipment, Cybex resistance units, and an indoor track.

The NJIT men's and women's basketball and volleyball teams play their home games in Entwistle Gymnasium, the main facility in the Fleisher Center. Entwistle seats approximately 1,500 spectators. The back bay, "C gym," area can be sectioned off from the main floor, making the entire gymnasium useful for intramural events, physical education classes, and campus recreation time, and able to host multiple events simultaneously.

The women's soccer team also has access to all of the other facilities in the athletic center. These include the fitness area (containing computer controlled biking equipment, Cybex resistance units, and an indoor track), weight room, four racquetball courts (which can be converted for squash), a martial arts center, and an aerobics/dance studio. A six-lane swimming pool is home to NJIT's men's and women's swimming teams, while the two varsity tennis squads host matches and practices at four lighted outdoor hardcourt tennis courts behind the building. The Hazell Student Center houses six regulation bowling lanes.

The facilities are also used by NJIT's club sport offerings, which include bowling, cricket, golf, judo, men's lacrosse and wrestling.

Communications

The NJIT athletics department now offers several ways for media and fans to keep up with the Highlanders:

www.njit.edu/athletics

NJIT sports news, results, and schedules are available by logging onto <http://www.njit.edu/athletics>. The Highlanders' athletic Web page is coordinated by NJIT graduate students Ashish Bhardwaj and Pramendra Jain.

The page was redesigned and relaunched in the fall of 2000 by then-graduate student Amit Desai. Bhardwaj and Jain now maintain the site under the supervision of Ray Hayling, manager of Internet services, and Mark Mentone, coordinator of sports information services.

Currently available are rosters and schedules of all 13 NJIT varsity inter-collegiate sports, the latest department press releases and weekly notebooks, biographies of coaches, and the NJIT Alumni Athletic Hall of Fame. Future plans include biographies of selected athletes, record books, and photo albums.

(973) 596-5555

New for 2001-02 is the NJIT Sports Hotline, (973) 596-5555. Option 1 will give the user the most recent varsity results. Option 2 provides upcoming events and special announcements. Users will also be able to leave a message for the sports information office.

E-Mail Distribution List

Anyone can receive the most recent NJIT athletics press releases electronically by joining the department's e-mail distribution list. Membership is free. Created in the winter of 2000-01, the list has been refined so that users can receive all releases or just the ones in which they are most interested.

To begin receiving Highlander news in your inbox, fill out the form on the athletics Web site or send a message to Mark Mentone at mentone@adm.niit.edu.

Campus Message Board

Mark Mentone

Visitors or members of the campus community are encouraged to check out the new electronic message board to the right of the gym entrances to the Fleisher Athletic Center.

The board, installed in January 2001, provides department and campus news 24 hours a day on a flashy amber-colored LED display. Those approaching from the campus green area can learn such tidbits as upcoming events, recreational classes, new staff members, and intramural champions, as well as the latest varsity scores and highlights.

When NJIT reclassified its athletic programs to NCAA Division II from Division III in 1997, the Highlanders joined the New York Collegiate Athletic Conference (NYCAC). After three years of NYCAC play, the Highlanders began a new era in the fall of 2000 as members of the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference (CACC).

NJIT is the only school in the 12-member CACC with full NCAA membership. The other institutions possess provisional NCAA status, as they are in the process of switching affiliation from the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA).

The CACC has allowed the Highlanders to save tremendously on travel time and costs. NJIT is centrally located in the conference, and four other member schools are in New Jersey, allowing the opportunity to foster local rivalries.

2001 Preseason Coaches' Poll: 1) Holy Family College; 2) Georgian Court College; 3) Teikyo Post University; 4) Felician College; 5) Dominican (N.Y.) College; 6) Goldey-Beacom College; 7) Nyack College; 8) Caldwell College; 9) Wilmington (Del.) College; 10) NJIT; 11) Bloomfield College.
