Course Description (from NJIT's course catalog)

A seminar in which faculty or others present summaries of advanced topics suitable for research. Students and faculty discuss research procedures, thesis organization, and content. Students present their research for discussion and criticism. Required of all doctoral students registered for CE 790 unless requirement is waived, in writing, by the dean of graduate studies.

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Academic Integrity: It is expected that NJIT's University Code on Academic Integrity will be followed in all matters related to this course. Refer to NJIT's Dean of Students website to become familiar with the Code on Academic Integrity and how to avoid Code violations. https://www.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf Communication: All communication with the students will be through Canvas.

Lectures, Attendance, and Absences:

1. The graduate seminars will be an in-person event throughout this semester.
2. You are ONLY allowed to have 2 unexcused absences throughout the semester to earn a SATISFACTORY grade in this course.

3. Any excused absence (with official and verifiable documentation) has to be approved by the Office of the Dean of Students (DOS).
4. Similar to previous semesters, you must attend each seminar, sign the attendance, and stay till the end of the event.
5. The flyers (containing detailed information) for upcoming seminar events will be posted under each module on Canvas.

Course Grade: You can only earn a SATISFACTORY or UNSATISFACTORY grade in this course.

Students with Documented Disabilities: NJIT is committed to providing students with documented disabilities equal access to programs and activities. If you have, or believe that you may have, a physical, medical, psychological, or learning disability that may require accommodations, please contact the Coordinator of Student Disability Services located in the Center for Counseling and Psychological Services, in Campbell Hall, Room 205, (973) 596-3414. Further information on disability services related to the self-identification, documentation and accommodation processes can be found on the webpage at: (https://www.njit.edu/accessibility/accommodations-and-supportservices).

AI statement: The use of artificial intelligence (AI) is permitted in this course only when explicitly stated in assignments. If students use AI for any course-related work, they must cite it according to the guidelines provided on the NJIT Library AI Citation page. If you have any questions about AI use in this course, please contact the course instructor before submitting any assignments. In cases where AI use is not allowed, students are expected to complete work without AI assistance to develop their skills in this subject area.
