General Education Goals:

HIST- 213 is affirmed in the following General Education Foundation Category: Historical Perspective. The corresponding General Goal is as follows: Students will understand historical events and movements in the world, both Western and non-Western, and assess their subsequent significance.

Course Objectives:

Knowledge of history is of the greatest importance due to the fact that the world we live in today is the direct result of various historical developments. The students of the course will analyze historical events and movements of the 20th century and assess their subsequent significance. Students will use critical thinking and problem-solving skills to analyze information and develop their writing skills by producing a historically themed research paper. Additionally, students will learn how to synthesize historical and geographical information acquired through the understanding of maps and primary source information.

Course Goals:

Upon completion of this course, students should specifically be able to do the following:

- Demonstrate knowledge of some of the fundamental concepts and theories of historical events and ideas related to the 20th Century World.
- Evaluate global exchanges and perspectives in context of social, political, religious, and intellectual traditions.
- Read, analyze, organize and synthesize evidence, historical problems, and interpretations connected to the history of the 20th Century World.

Measurable Course Performance Objectives (MPOs):

Upon successful completion of this course, students should specifically be able to do the following:

- Demonstrate knowledge of some of the fundamental concepts and theories of historical events and ideas related to human societies, including but not limited to Africa, India, China, Latin America, Europe, and the United States.
- Identify and describe key terms, names and places of major events of the 20th Century World.
- Evaluate the validity of various interpretations of historical events and institutions.
- Clarify and summarize information pertaining to historical events and ideas in Several Short Papers.
- Evaluate global exchanges and perspectives in context of social, political, religious, and intellectual traditions.

- Identify places and nation states on historical maps.
- Discuss social structures, religious ideas and institutions, and intellectual traditions.
- Read, Analyze, organize, and synthesize evidence, historical problems, and interpretations connected to the history of the 20th Century World
- Use primary and secondary sources to show how historical problems are confronted.
- Conduct research and explore reliable resources on the history of the 20th Century World
