Meeting days/times: Tuesday/Thursday 4:00 – 5:20 PM
Meeting Location: Kupfrian Hall, Room 106

Office: Cullimore 419
Office Hours: T/TH 10:00 – 11:30 AM

COURSE OVERVIEW

(Prerequisite: HSS 101): An advanced writing course. Combines current theory with actual practice to prepare students as technical writers. Analyze complex communication situations and design appropriate responses through tasks that involve problem solving, rhetorical theory, document design, oral presentations, writing teams, audience awareness, ethical considerations, and gender equity issues.

COURSE GOALS

- ◆ Write and revise various types of professional technical communications to produce a set of technical documents demonstrating your ability to write clearly and accurately in a concise professional style.
- ◆ Read and interpret material on technology and explain the ideas, issues, and problems involved in writing about technology and in workplace writing.
- ◆ Demonstrate information literacy: the ability to formulate appropriate questions, find, select, assess, analyze information sources, both print and electronic, from the open web and/or the NJIT Library, and to synthesize, credit, and integrate those sources in your own work.
- ◆ Develop collaborative work habits, including those necessary for effective cooperation with other students and instructors.
- ◆ Identify your own strengths and weaknesses in writing.

There is NO midterm exam.
There is NO final exam.

TEXTBOOK

The Essentials of Technical Communication 5th Edition, by Elizabeth Tebeaux and Sam Dragga, Oxford University Press; 2020
ISBN-10: 0197539203, ISBN-13: 978-0197539200

ASSIGNMENTS & GRADING

All grading will be done numerically. For instance, if an assignment is worth 10%, it will receive a grade from 1 to 10. These grades will then be added at the end of the semester for the final grade.

FINAL GRADES

A = 94 – 100 B+ = 87 – 93 B = 81 – 86 C+ = 76 – 80 C = 70 – 75 D = 65 – 69 F = 0 – 64

ASSIGNMENTS

	Assignment Name and Description	%
#1	Types of Professional Writing Exercise – Research the types of professional writings that you may have to prepare in your field, such as a standard operating procedure (SOP). Prepare a memorandum detailing your findings, their purpose, and which ones you are likely to struggle with.	5%
#2	Resume (Peer Review) – Write a resume with Education and Experience (work or volunteer) as the first two entries. Bring a digital copy to class for peer review.	5%
#3	Visual Communication Exercise – Find two examples of visual communication (online, in a brochure, in a textbook or article, etc.), one good and one bad. Put them in a Word document with the source (where you found each graphic) and a paragraph on why they are good or bad.	5%
#4	First Draft Interview Report – Interview a classmate using a specific job description. Start with a list of questions and write down the answers. Using those notes, prepare a one-page narrative style report.	10%

	Assignment Name and Description	%
#5	Final Draft Interview Report – After you have received the reviews from your peers and myself, revise the essay. If you don't revise, I'll take points off.	5%
#6	Final Major Project Proposal – Explain what you intend to work on for the Final Major Project. This will count as completion only.	5%
#7	First Draft Major Project – You can choose to write a report, a proposal or a procedure. This 1 st Draft should be at least 4 double-spaced pages, excluding illustrations. The more finished it is, the more valuable the peer feedback.	10%
#8	Oral Presentation – Choose any topic - your favorite hobby, your area of expertise, etc. Each presentation should be 7 minutes maximum and will be timed . DO NOT READ FROM SLIDES! Your presentation will be assessed by the entire class and graded by me.	10%
#9	Final Draft Major Project – Revise your Major Project paper, put it into the Word template and upload to Canvas.	20%
#10	Class Participation – Weekly discussions and short writing assignments.	25%

AI CHATBOTS

When using AI chatbots for assistance (e.g., research, brainstorming, etc.), you must quote any borrowed material and include a disclaimer at the end, documenting how the tool aided you in the writing process. Remember that chatbots sometimes generate fictitious content, including source material.

ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION

I do not accept emailed assignments. Late assignments receive a 10% late penalty for each day they are late; after 3 days, I do not accept the assignment. However, documented emergencies, accommodations, and unprecedented personal circumstances are exceptions to this rule, once the Dean of Students (<https://www.njit.edu/dos/contact.php>) approves it.

PLAGIARISM

No document should go beyond 20% plagiarism rate unless it comes from cited material.

ATTENDANCE

Unexcused Absences: You may have up to four unexcused absences. Anything more than four would be grounds for failure.

Excused Absences: If you are absent at any point in the semester for a legitimate reason*, you need to first contact the Dean of Students (<https://www.njit.edu/dos/contact.php>). Once they approve your absence, I will receive an official response from them via email.

EXPECTATIONS FOR INSTRUCTOR RESPONSIVENESS

The best way to contact me is via email; you can expect a response within 48 hours. Also, assignments are graded on a weekly basis, unless the work is late.

NJIT UNIVERSITY CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

“Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: NJIT Academic Integrity Code.

Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu”

ACCESSIBILITY NEEDS

Every attempt will be made to accommodate qualified students with disabilities. If you are a student with a documented disability, please see me as early in the semester as possible to discuss the necessary accommodations, and/or contact Student Disability Services at 973-596-3420.
