

New Jersey Institute of Technology
COM 312-016: Oral Presentation
W/F 1:00-2:20 pm

Instructor: Julie Teicher

Contact: Julie.teicher@njit.edu

Course Description: Students will develop public speaking skills that are eminent for success in academic, civic, business, and professional life. Students who complete COM 312, will have constructed and delivered one short informative speech, a demonstrative speech, an interactive entertainment speech, and a researched persuasive speech. The goal is for speakers to become competent in organizational writing, academic research, extemporaneous delivery, and effective electronic visual construction (i.e. Google Slides/Canva/PPT). The overall goal is for students to speak consistently with the intent of increasing speaking skills and confidence. Additional reading and quizzes will be required.

Required Materials:

- O'Brien, Liz. Speak Well. New York, NY.
- Notebook/pen or pencil/folder
- Students MAY OPT to purchase additional supplies for non-electronic visual aids

Intended Course Learning Outcomes/Course Goals (Core Competencies):

- Deliver an effective extemporaneous style of speaking
- Demonstrate proper physical and vocal delivery techniques
- Demonstrate information literacy – (for the demonstrative and persuasive speeches)
- Construct standard patterns of speech organization
- Develop and utilize visual aids effectively
- Develop critical thinking and listening skills
- Increase the ability to master real-world interpersonal communication

Academic Integrity: Academic integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly PROHIBITED and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: <http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf>.

Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing, or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade or F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Student Office at dos@njit.edu

Grading

Late speech policy: All speeches must be delivered as scheduled. Speaking, when scheduled, is integral to successful public speaking; therefore, all late speeches (if accepted) will incur a penalty (30 percent deduction). The only exception will be if proper documentation is provided. Quizzes cannot be made up.

Students may earn up to a maximum of 500 points as follows:
