Class Time & Location: Mondays 2:30 pm – 5:20 pm, CAB 3052 - Hybrid

Office Hours: Mondays 11 am – 2 pm. By appointment.

Course Overview

This course focuses on the theory and practice of corporate finance. The students will work on concepts, valuation tools, risk assessment methods and budgeting techniques used by corporations in making financial and investment decisions.

Fin 600 is the traditional first course in corporation finance common to master programs, focusing on how firm managers make their financing and investing decisions to run their business. Topics include the financial statement analysis, time value of money, bond and equity valuation, risk and return, capital budgeting, capital structure, dividends, and so forth. We will consider these topics mainly from the point of view as a manager (insider), and sometimes from the point of view as an investor (outsider) when appropriate.

Homework Weekly Assignments

You need to complete the weekly homework assignments and submit them as instructed.

Exams

All students need to take the Exams in class as instructed.

Late Assignments

Late assignments will not be accepted for grading unless there is a severe illness or an emergency situation. In these cases, legitimate documentation of the emergency must be presented and approved by the office of the Dean of Students before extensions will be granted.

Class Participation

Participation in class discussions is required of all students. Actively participating in class discussions contributes to learning and is a good way to help build a sense of community and collaboration.

Email Etiquette

This is a business course, and the expectation is that you will conform to appropriate business letter writing practice in all of your email to me. The following are the basics.

- Put the course name (e.g. course name or course number) in the subject line
- Identify the subject of the e-mail with a brief but descriptive summary of the topic: include a proper salutation and the assignment details such as the title, homework, or test.
- Proofread your e-mail for proper sentence structure, capitalization, spelling and punctuation.
- Conclude the e-mail message with a proper closing (e.g. Regards, Sincerely) and your full name.

Academic Integrity

Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: NJIT Academic Integrity Code

Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu

Learning is both an individual and a cooperative experience. Asking for and giving help freely in appropriate settings helps you learn. However, you need to complete the exams in class on your own and without any help beyond what the instructor will provide. University rules and standards define and prohibit “academic misconduct” by all members of the academic community including students.

Accommodations

Educational access is the provision of classroom accommodations, auxiliary aids and services to ensure equal educational opportunities for all students regardless of their disability. Students can request accommodations at any time throughout the semester. Accommodations are active from the date that professors/instructors receive the Letter of Accommodations from OARS via email. If you are in need of accommodations due to a disability please contact Marsha Williams-Nicholas, Associate Director of the Office of Accessibility Resources & Services (OARS), Kupfrian Hall 201, to discuss your specific needs: oars@njit.edu, Marsha.williamsnicholas@njit.edu, telephone: (973) 596-2994.

Final Comments
